

KALI GANDAKI RIVER RAFTING

TRIP FACTS

From
$165 USD

2 days , Beni to Mirmire

Grade:

 Moderate: Suitable for those who want to enjoy to the utmost in an easy trip.

Kali Gandaki is another popular river for rafting. Many tourists are keen on taking a rafting trip to this river. It tumbles down between Mt. Dhaulagiri and the Annapurna ranges through remote canyons and the world's deepest gorge with intense rapids. The natural scenery around the area is pristine and unspoiled, as the water flows through narrow gorges; rafters can see exotic wildlife in the surrounding jungles. Starting at Baglung, the trip rafts down to Mirmire in five or six days. This river offers an exciting alternative to rafting on the Trishuli River.

Highlights

- i. Duration: 2 – 3 Days
- ii. Start Point: Near Beni
- iii. Accessibility: By road
- iv. End point: Mirmire

- v. Rapid grading up to: 3+
- vi. Best Seasons: Spring & Autumn